SATURDAY, JANUARY 6, 1906.

BRANDON BUDGET.

No train went west yesterday. How desolate are they walls, O Rink. Judge Walker arrived in the City yesterday. It drifted pretty heavily for a while last night. The thermometer last night registered 30 below the zero point. Train from Regina due here at 11.50 a. m. on Thursday arrived yesterday. The cars attached to the 2.30 train from the east yesterday were full to overflowing. Rev. A. Macdonald will preach at the School house, on Sunday next, at 11 a. m. and 7 o'clock in the evening. A special meeting of the City Council is called for to-night, at 7 o'clock, business, financial matters. Mr. Thompson has received the plans for the new C.P.R. freight offices at Brandon and work is shortly to be in operation. Thomas Craig, tonsorial artist, reopens today in Dr. Shaw's old office. Tommy intends to wild the steel in a patriotic style. The blockade which causes so much irregularity of trains, was caused by ice clogging in the flange of the truck wheels thus detaching them from the rails. There was a drunken squabble at the Grand Central last Thursday evening, and kept up to an early hour on Friday morning, much to the disgust of the neighbors round about. We don't see why it is that the lofty minded scribe of the Evening Sun should take offence at the MAIL's reference to its "fool squalls," unless that cap fitted too. As a specimen of the enterprise of the evening print it is worth recording that in its issue of last night it discovered that no train arrived from the west on the preceding day! The newly organized brass band met for practice in the City Hall, last night, for the first time. On Monday Mr. Craig goes to Winnipeg to purchase a stock of new choice music. Messrs. Woodworth & Rounsell bring to the city in a few days 1,000 cords of wood, which they hope to dispose of at low prices. It is principally dry poplar, and was cut near Sorel. A special meeting of the city council will take place at the council chamber this evening at the customary hour. The council will probably go into committee of the whole on ways and means. As Mr. Buck, of Fortier & Buck, was sitting on a box that was along with others, being driven in an express from the depot, it happened, sending Mr. Buck on all fours, luckily, however, he escaped uninjured. Dr. Shaw in this issue puts the other side of the risk controversy from the proprietors' standpoint. We would like to see this matter amicably arranged for the sake of both sides. Further discussion of the matter will do little good. There will be a fancy dress carnival given at the rink on Friday first, the 12th inst., in aid of the Brandon Brass Band. Tickets will be sold at 25 cents. A good cause and one which will no doubt meet with great success. The Noah Claypole of the Evening Frying Pan asserts that this journal has an underground wire to Milford. This assertion is not true, we have no underground wire. Our contemporary could not resist this opportunity of telling its readers a monster. His Highness of the evening Gaffer pretends that he is a patriotic journalist, and that he would not call names or use vulgar epithets, in short, that he is a great moral showman, incapable of slang, etc. Judging from the attitude which he is picking up and the fluency and liberality with which he deals it out, we cannot see any reason for complaint. His Extreme Eminence should not be too voracious. The propensities of the reporter of our contemporary must be great indeed. A few days ago he made mention of having within his mighty grasp a beautiful specimen of lignite coal from the Sask. The coal was so suddenly transformed to such a blue species from the time it left the railway car and pocketed by said individual till the time he placed it on his table, is wondrous to relate. The officers of the Fire Brigade are again to the front. Chief Engineer Alexander offers a handsome gold badge to the member who runs the hose cart out first, in case of an alarm of fire, the greatest number of times during the year, and Assistant Chief Wiswell offers one to the hook and ladder company for the same. Evidently those energetic officers intend making this brigade "second to none," and it is hoped that the citizens will give them all the assistance in their power. We have received several copies of the Brandon Daily Mail, published by Douglas & Ham. It is a neatly printed and well edited paper, supporting the Conservative party and advocating the interest of Manitoba generally and Brandon particularly. Mr. Ham shows his practical knowledge of the "art preservative" by printing to face a specimen of that art. We congratulate him on the auspicious opening of his Manitoba experience and wish him much prosperity.—Belleville Ontario.

MILFORD.

A Rousing Meeting on Thursday Night. Mr. Woodworth Carries the Meeting.

(FROM OUR SPECIAL REPORTER.)

The hall was comfortably packed on Thursday evening. Mr. Woodworth opened the meeting, making a speech that was practical and convincing. He was frequently applauded, and at its conclusion was loudly cheered. Mr. Clifford Sifton followed with the usual hash about disallowance and monopoly. Mr. Daly took the floor and made a characteristic brilliant speech in favor of Mr. Woodworth. Mr. Daly was loudly applauded. Mr. Peterson, the high toned rooster followed, but made no impression. The meeting was a decided success for Mr. Woodworth, and it closed with three cheers for Mr. Woodworth and the Queen.

INTER-PROVINCIAL.

Clipped from 12 magazines.

The details of the free fight at the Grand Union Hotel, Winnipeg, are given in the Winnipeg papers. They are simply disgusting. The following is the latest phase: This morning one of the tenants of the Grand Union, Mr. Cross, instructed Mr. Inkster, the sheriff, to fasten up the doors of the hotel, which he did. Subsequently some person, at present unknown, but suspicion points strongly against a gentleman greatly interested in the hotel, broke open the doors. Shortly after this was done, the Deputy Sheriff Brown appeared on the scene. Then Mr. Cross, the bailiff, accompanied by ex-Ald. Bathgate, presented themselves for admission which was refused them by the deputy-sheriff, Mr. Brown. They then endeavored to force an entrance which was resisted by the deputy sheriff. The bailiff, Mr. Cross, after the door had been forcibly opened, came inside, and announced that the bailiff's sale for rent would be postponed until to-morrow. That announcement ended the difficulty. The amount of rent owed by the tenants of the Grand Union is $2,000, which sum they propose to pay before any seizure is made.

Carrying out its plan of obtaining the views of leading citizens of all class upon the present condition of municipal matters. The Times this morning sent a representative to Mr. L. Arnett, one of our best known dry goods merchants, in order to see how a business man looked upon the matter.

"In the first place," said Mr. Arnett, "let the Mayor and Councillors take their seats; and the courts confirm them in necessity. The state of affairs at present would lead the outside world to believe that we don't know how to govern ourselves in a business-like manner, and this would indirectly have an injurious effect upon the reputation of the city. The danger that I think the greatest is its result as to our financial position as a city, as borrowers in the money market. The moment this difficulty is known it will be communicated to all the money centers—New York and London. Enquiries will be made, and possibly for a time our credit will be injured, especially in floating our bonds at the present time. Up to this time Winnipeg has rapidly risen in its commercial character, not only in Canada, but in Europe. Manufacturers in Europe are as ready to sell large buyers in Winnipeg as to buyers in Montreal or Toronto, her reputation being of the very highest."

"Would the present difficulty have any injurious effect upon the credit of Winnipeg merchants, as distinct from that of the city as a corporation?"

"No; except that every such difficulty has a sort of reflex effect."

"Would it affect the trade of the city?"

"It might be affected by the large indebtedness of the corporation of the city, which they cannot pay until they obtain their loan."

"Then I suppose their present indebtedness is largely in Winnipeg?"

"Yes; the money is owing to banks and merchants here."

PERSONALS.

Judge and Mrs. Walker arrived yesterday from Winnipeg.

Mr. Bell, of Parson & Ferguson's wholesale stationery, Winnipeg, is in the city and is registered at the Grand view. He paid a visit to institution last night.

E. A. Blow of the Marquette Review is a guest at the Royal.

Slave Trade. The slave trade in Africa is still enormous. Dr. Livingstone estimated the traffic for all Africa at 500,000 yearly. Col. Gordon puts the loss of life in the Sudan alone at 20,000 to 30,000 annually. Raoul Pasha, who was left to carry out the work begun by Col. Gordon for the suppression of the slave trade, is proving his active abilities, and the inquiry is encouraged by the Egyptian Government. "The sale and purchase of human beings continues to be practiced on a large scale in the Hedgry Yemen, Nubia, Abyssinia and at various points on the coast. Men, women and children are sold as beasts of burden.

Col. Tom O'Connell says Texas whiskey is as hot as lava. It is often called "a drop of the crater."
